

National Alternative Fuels Training Consortium (NAFTC)

Membership Benefits

Non-Profit Organizations and Government Agencies – $1,000 Annual Membership Fee

Non-profit organizations (other than educational institutions) and government agencies, including Clean Cities Coalitions, are eligible to be considered for NAFTC membership. Non-profit and government agencies that become centers of the NAFTC will receive the following benefits:

Curricula and Training

- Access to industry-recognized and award winning, participant/student course and workshop curricula and materials, about alternative fuels, alternative fuel vehicles (AFVs) and advanced technology vehicles;
- Participation in train-the-trainer classes, instructor updates, and professional development;
- Member discount on instructor and student manuals and NAFTC Headquarters' courses and workshops; and
- Opportunity to participate in future NAFTC curriculum development for AFVs and advanced technology vehicles.

Industry Information

- Receive informative NAFTC correspondence, including NAFTC eNews, Clean Alternatives Report (CAReport), and industry and legislative updates, which will keep your organization up-to-date on the AFV and advanced technology vehicle industry advancements.
- Access to the "Member's Area" section of the NAFTC Web site, which includes a members-only download area, instructor resources, information on NAFTC Business Meetings, marketing information, and a Member's Forum.

Marketing Opportunities

- Receive professional plaque for organization to display NAFTC membership;
- Opportunity to present at NAFTC conferences, workshops, and trainings;
- Opportunity to host conferences, training, workshops, and professional development;
- Inclusion on the NAFTC Web Site including a list of and link to all member organizations;
- Submit news releases for possible inclusion in NAFTC eNews and the CArReport, which are distributed to the NAFTC's membership and Listservs;
- Opportunity to make special announcements to NAFTC membership and Listservs;
- Discounted advertising rate on NAFTC Web site; and
- Opportunity to post and view job listings on the NAFTC Web site.

Networking Opportunities

- Build valuable relationships and exchange information with other NAFTC members and key industry leaders during your attendance and participation at NAFTC business meetings, conferences and professional development activities;
- Receive discounted rates to NAFTC conferences; and
- Opportunity to participate in AFV and advanced technology vehicle events and activities, including assistance with National AFV Day Odyssey.